Founder Larry Cuttler started out delivering produce as a teenager, selling fresh strawberries to Manhattan bakeries, restaurants, and others in the early 1950s. Larry's biggest advantage was that he only sold perfect berries, holding his produce to higher standards of quality, taste, and aesthetics. Cuttler Produce became synonymous with quality.

Cuttler Produce has been delivering top quality fruits, vegetables, and more for over three generations.

Together with Larry's two sons, Kenny and Stuart, they started a wholesale produce company in 1989 named Cuttler Produce.

The goal was simple – work smarter and harder than our competitors to deliver the best quality produce available on the market. What started with two trucks and two employees eventually grew and grew, beginning with midnight runs to Hunts Point Market in New York and ending whenever that day dictated.

SPECIALTIES

Over decades in the food service industry, we have developed strong relationships with the biggest markets in the northeast, including Hunts Point Market in the Bronx, the largest produce market in the world. We also work with local farmers, giving us more resources for exotic and delicate items such as zucchini flowers, fiddleheads, microgreens, and edible orchids.

Need Quality Wholesale Produce in New Jersey? Think Cuttler.

Purveyors from around the world deliver to our warehouse daily. Kenny and Stuart check the produce in themselves. If they see any imperfections, they will reject that delivery. We only house the best for our customers.

With 25 refrigerated trucks, 42 employees, and owners that still work 12-hour days, we will absolutely be there to support your business. From the produce to the people that work at Cuttler, we will continue to honor Larry's legacy by continuing to stand for quality.

With one of the largest wholesale produce warehouses in New Jersey, we'll put together your order as quickly and efficiently as possible and coordinate delivery with our fleet of refrigerated vehicles and your receiving team so that you're never short on key ingredients.

Once your order is on its way to its final destination, you can expect reliable delivery of super fresh fruits and vegetables from Cuttler Produce. Whether you need repeat deliveries or regularly scheduled shipments, give us a call, and we'll be happy to help.
